

the guardian

Snooping around: Rural, urban and renovation

Considering a move or just wondering how the other half lives? Take a look at our gallery of homes on the market to see what your money will buy

Overseas home: America. Rub shoulders with Jack Nicklaus and Nick Price by buying a $1.2m fully furnished luxury hunting cabin at the Pine Creek Sporting Club in Okeechobee, Florida. The cabin is lovely, if you like a lot of wood paneling, but what you are really buying into is the members only, champion clays and wing shooting community, more than 1,000 acres of quail fields, members' lodge and swimming complex, dog kennels, horse stables and miles of horse, biking and nature trails. Pine Creek Sporting Club Photograph: Pinecricksportingclub.com